Remembrance

John Thomas Magras was born on November 10, 1942 in the small community of Frenchtown. His parents were Antoine and Josephine Magras, now deceased.

"Din-Din" as he was affectionately known attended Sts. Peter & Paul Cathedral School and Nisky School. Because of the harsh economic conditions at the time, he was forced to quit school. He then went on to work for the Department of Public Works for many years until his mental health deteriorated. One thing that never deteriorated however was his love of Coca-Cola.

Din-Din is survived by three brothers; Henry, Rene and Flavel Magras and two sisters; Euranie Lambert and Florie Payne. He is also survived by two aunts; Geraldine Bernier and Ophelia Yarrington and his favorite cousin Eleanor, with whom he always had a lot to say. Also among survivors are Irene Magras and Angelina Magras, sister-in-law who assisted with his care. He will be missed by all.

Rest in peace Din-Din
